SCROTAL SWELLING

HOW TO MAKE A CLINICAL DIAGNOSIS

AS PER SITE

1. Diagnose the Site of Swelling
   - Scrotal swelling
   - Inguinoscrotal swelling
   - Intrascrotal swelling
   - Scrotal wall swelling
   - Parietal swelling

2. Testis palpated separately
   - Scrotal swelling

3. Swelling located well above testis
   - Intra-scrotal swelling

4. Swelling located above or behind testis
   - Epididymal swelling

AS PER NATURE

1. Diagnose the Nature of Swelling
   - Painless
   - Painful

2. Painful
   - Fever Present
   - Fever Absent
   - Traumatic
   - Ischaemic

3. Painless
   - Acute infection
   - Testicular swelling